

Mystery arrows

Some mysterious and colorful logos have been haphazardly popping up around the Fountain Hills Middle School campus the past month or two... In cooperation with the administration, the giant chalk logos were put in place by the Fountain Hills Drug Coalition to promote Above the Influence, or ATI. The coalition is starting an ATI club on campus, urging students to stay above the influence of drugs and alcohol (www.abovetheinfluence.com).