

Above That Coalition poster contest is held

The Fountain Hills Coalition recently announced winners of its middle school poster contest.

A total of 128 posters were received from Fountain Hills Middle School and the Charter School.

First-, second- and third-place awards were presented to sixth, seventh and eighth graders.

During an awards ceremony, classes from each grade were present to accept individual and classroom smoothie awards.

Parents of two award winners in each grade were present to see their child accept their award, and parents of one sixth grader brought roses for their daughter.

Coalition officials revealed the winners starting with third place and then had them explain the meaning and inspiration behind their posters.

At the end of each class, current Above That Club officers, Gina Woods and Christian Stein, spoke about the Above That Club and what they enjoyed about being a part of the club.

The three first-place winners had their posters inserted with Papa Murphy's pizzas on certain days.

First-place winners received $100 each; second, $50; and third, $25. In addition, all 128 participants received a coupon for a free Wendy's Frosty. Many of the posters have been displayed in the showcases of the FHMS seventh and eighth grade wing.

Respective first, second and third place winners for each grade were:

*Seventh grade -- Tiffany Chen, Hannah Barsema, Anya Freyer-Melk; Mrs. Kelly

*Eighth grade -- Maya Johnson (Charter School), Ali McAuliff, Lindsay Patherl; Ms. Day (Charter School).

The coalition wanted to thank art teacher Tracy Perry and PE teacher/Above That facilitator Patti Schultz for their enthusiasm and work in making the contest such a huge success.

Maya Johnson, above, from the Fountain Hills Charter School, won the eighth grade poster contest. Poster had to incorporate the 'Above That Club' logo arrow and deliver a message in line with the club's mission.
