

Back 2 School Bash is Aug. 25

Just because school is back in session does not mean that the summer fun has to end.

The Town of Fountain Hills Community Services Department and the Fountain Hills Coalition invite students to join the fun at Four Peaks Park for the Second Annual Back 2 School Bash family event.

The Back 2 School Bash is free and will be Friday, Aug. 25, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. featuring water slides, inflatable games, yard games, music, food trucks and much more.

Have you ever wanted to dunk your teacher? Here is your chance to try and soak your favorite teacher in the Back 2 School Bash dunk tank.

The Back 2 School Bash water carnival will also include food trucks serving mouthwatering dishes sure to have your taste buds thanking you. Local favorite Fountain Hills Water and Ice will be cooking up fresh-made kettle corn and serving ice-cold Italian Ice.

A special appearance will be made by Rural Metro Fire Department featuring a demo fire truck for kids to explore.

MCSO will have a squad car for kids to check out along with several pieces of equipment and gear.

Thrivent Financial will be on-site producing safety ID cards for children to take home.

Fountain Hills Coalition will be providing information about the Safe Homes Network and giving away cool prizes.

Sonoran Realty will be having a photo booth so families and kids can take some memorable and funny pics.

Bring swimsuits and friends for an evening of fun and games in the park. Everyone is invited to enjoy this opportunity for the community to gather in a social setting for a night of good old-fashioned family fun.

Just in time for the opening of all fall and winter recreation classes, the Town of Fountain Hills will have several program demos going on including Nerf Wars and tennis lessons. See the "In the Loop" publication for a listing of all fall/winter classes set to hit homes on Aug. 16.

Parking is limited. The town is recommending patrons first park in the Four Peaks north field parking lot. Overflow parking will be available along Del Cambre Avenue.

Organizers would like to thank sponsors, including the Fountain Hills Coalition, Sonoran Realty and Thrivent Financial for their contributions, without which the event would not be possible.

For more information call 480-816-5100 or visit our Community Services Facebook page at facebook.com/fountainhillsrecreation.

Girl Scouts recruiting members

To kick the new school year off, Fountain Hills Girl Scouts is hosting their annual "Round-Up" information night to be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 23, at the Sunset Kiwanis building located at 16957 Kiwanis Dr.

Parents and guardians of any young girl interested in joining Girl Scouts are encouraged to attend the informal information night. Registration procedure, troop availability, troop activities and membership dues will be discussed at the meeting.

Girls between the ages of 5-18 can be a part of Girl Scouts, a non-profit organization centered on girls developing leadership skills and self-confidence.

"There is greatness in every girl," explained neighborhood troop coordinator Nia Blose. "Girl Scouts plants trees, collects clothes for the needy, build gardens, paint tunnels, recycles plastic; whatever it takes to make her neighborhood better. Find your greatness by joining Girl Scouts."

Blose said the local chapter is open to any interested girls, especially those who want to make a difference in their own community.

"The Service Team for Fountain Hills' Girl Scouts is committed to making the dream of every girl interested in being a Girl Scout a reality," Blose added. "With the combined efforts of dedicated Girl Scout leaders and involved parents, we can make this happen."

Those interested in being involved with Girl Scouts but cannot attend the meeting should call Blose at 480-296-3101 or email nblose@arotechinc.com.

Sign up for Mayor's Youth Council

The Fountain Hills Mayor's Youth Council is on the lookout for new members.

The Mayor's Youth Council is a group of teens dedicated to learning how government works as well as representing the concerns of their peers to Mayor Linda Kavanagh and Town Council members. They accomplish this through hands-on experiences in local government, training sessions with town departments, a field trip to the State Capital, many community service projects, as well as plenty of time to have fun, make new friends, plan events and volunteer.

More than a community service organization, the Mayor's Youth Council encourages leadership skills that students in grades 9-12 will use their entire life. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month, 4:30 to 6 p.m., starting Aug. 22.

Kavanagh invites all youth in these grades to complete an application that can be found on the town website at fh.az.gov/myc. Applications may also be found at the Fountain Hills High School office, as well as kiosks in the library, Community Center or Town Hall.

Applications are being accepted through Sept. 12 and can be dropped off at Town Hall, 16705 E. Avenue of the Fountains, Attention MYC Advisor, Heather Ware.

According to Ware, the Mayor's Youth Council gives youth a chance to be heard and make a difference in their community. Community Service hours are given for participation.

For questions, contact Ware at 480-816-5108 or email hware@fh.az.gov.
