SOTH sponsors healing prayer seminar

Pastor Bill Dasch, a retired Lutheran minister, will present a healing prayer seminar beginning at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 17, in the Shepherd of the Hills Church (SOTH) fellowship hall, corner of El Lago and Fountain Hills boulevards. He will teach Biblical principles of healing prayer and demonstrate how to pray for God's healing.

The seminar is designed for anyone who would like to know more about God's miracles. Following the seminar, from 2 to 3 p.m., Dasch invites town residents to receive prayers for healing.

Also, he will preach at the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services Sunday, Feb. 18. After each service, he will pray with those who request prayer.

A lunch will follow the 10:30 service with an abbreviated healing prayer seminar on Sunday afternoon. Miracle Monday will be held the next day. He and a prayer team will be available from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

The healing seminar is the first event emphasizing this year's Lenten theme, "By His wounds we are healed" (Isaiah 53:5). Different people will share personal stories of healing each Wednesday during Lent at the 6:30 p.m. worship service.

Retired Lutheran minister, Bill Dasch, right, will conduct healing prayer sessions Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Feb. 17-19, at Shepherd of the Hills Church.

Partnership for Prevention

Fountain Hills Youth Substance Abuse Coalition recently held a Partnership for Prevention breakfast with the faith community in Fountain Hills. A total of 15 representatives from seven churches attended the event to share information, ideas and plan for the future. The group's next meeting is March 8.
