

Seeing red*

FHMS celebrates Red Ribbon Week

Times photos by Ryan Winslett

Captain John Kleinheinz looks on, and laughs a little, as Superintendent Dr. Bill Myhr takes on one of his office's dogs during the Red Ribbon Week celebration at FHMS.

DEA agents meet and greet students and community members, showing off their helicopter after it landed at FHMS during the Red Ribbon Week celebration.

The FHMS Above That Club gave a quick class on the Text-a-Tip program, encouraging students to save the number into their phones for easy use.

Deputy Burns shows FHMS students that trying to outrun one of the Sheriff Office's dogs isn't the best idea. He described the experience as "messing up your head because you've got a dog biting you."